

Two weeks of world class racing, starting in Cork Harbour, and on to beautiful Glandore in West Cork.

Photo: Dennis Horgan Aerial Photography

www.glandoreyc.com/ghyc-classic-regatta

West Cork will be the place to be in July 2020 for all Classic Boat enthusiasts, and for anyone who enjoys sailing or watching sailing, in some of the most beautiful venues in the world.

Recognising that there will be an unprecedented 'Gathering' of extraordinary boats in Cork to celebrate the 300th anniversary of the Royal Cork Yacht Club, the Glandore Classic Regatta is being scheduled so that classic boats can participate in both events, and then go on to the Cowes Classic Regatta.

There will be several weeks of exciting events for all kinds of boats in Cork Harbour, centering around a great 'Gathering' on 12th July. The Beaufort Cup will see naval vessels from several countries compete for honours. Flotillas of cruisers are coming from UK, USA and Europe. And a Power Boat race from Cork to Bantry will see some of the most powerful racing boats reach speeds in excess of 100 knots. Classic boat racing will be organized in Cork Harbour 13-15

July, and then boats will either road trail to Glandore, or cruise in company along the Wild Atlantic Way, calling in to Kinsale enroute to Glandore.

Once in Glandore there will be a Parade of Sail in the Harbour on Sunday 19th July, providing spectators on Glandore Terrace with a rare bird's eye view of these elegant craft in one of the world's most beautiful natural settings. Four days of Harbour and Bay racing will follow, but time will be allotted for fun events as well, like the 'cruise in company' to Castletownshend, with lunch in the famous Mary Anne's Bar.

We are already seeing very high levels of interest from some lovely international classic boats including Mariette and Eleonora. Some of the boats we hope to see here are the Dublin Bay 24's, the Menai Strait Fife's, the Cork Harbour

One Designs, the Ette's, the AK Ilen, and of course large fleets of Squibs and Dragons. In addition, a wide range of classic workboats and dayboats are expected, and several sail-training boats have shown interest in attending.

ADVANCE NOTICE OF PROGRAM

18 July	Crane-in and registration, welcome reception
19 July	Parade of Sail
20 July	Bay and Harbour racing
21 July	Bay and Harbour racing
22 July	Lay Day, Cruise in Company to Castletownshend
23 July	Bay and Harbour racing, Regatta dinner
24 July	Bay and Harbour racing, Prize giving, crane out
25 July	Crane out

ACTIVITIES OFF THE WATER

For non-sailing visitors, or sailors taking time off the water, Glandore offers a wide range of activities, with whale watching, sea kayaking, sea fishing, swimming, and paddle boarding all available locally.

Away from the water we have horse riding, golf, cycling, and of course walking along quiet country roads with spectacular coastal views (see unionhallwalks.ie).

The Drombeg Stones just outside Glandore is one of the finest examples of standing stones in Ireland. The three villages around Glandore Harbour all offer the famous West Cork hospitality, with a range of bar-restaurants as well as more traditional pubs.

Cork Whale Watch

www.corkwhalewatch.ie

Atlantic Sea Kayaking

www.atlanticseakayaking.com

Coastal walks

www.unionhallwalks.ie

Sea fishing

www.seaanglingcharters.ie

Information on Glandore Village

www.glandorevillage.ie

ACCOMMODATION

Bay View B & B

Philbhamilton@gmail.com

Celtic Ross Hotel

[Rosscarbery
www.celticrosshotel.com](http://www.celticrosshotel.com)

Holiday Homes Glandore

www.rent.ie

Houses & cottages to let in West Cork shamrockcottages.co.uk

Seascape B & B

[Union Hall
www.seascape.ie](http://www.seascape.ie)

Shearwater B & B

[Union Hall
www.shearwaterbandb.com](http://www.shearwaterbandb.com)

The Meadows Campsite

glandorecamping@gmail.com

www.airbnb.ie

www.daft.ie

www.tripadvisor.ie

www.booking.com

NOTICE OF REGATTA & REGISTRATION

All Regatta documents, including entry forms, will be available online at www.glandoreyc.com/ghyc-classic-regatta

Registration will begin 6th January 2020, and there will be a generous early entry discount.

www.glandoreyc.com/ghyc-classic-regatta

✉ GlandoreClassic@glandoreyc.com

www.cork300.com/classic-traditional/

✉ info@cork300.com